Lyrics meaning in Hindi

इन lyrics का हिंदी में सरल भावार्थ यह है कि यह गीत यीशु मसीह की महिमा, विश्वास, आशा और उनके जीवन में मार्गदर्शन के लिए धन्यवाद व्यक्त करता है।

हिंदी भावार्थ

"तुमसा कोई नहीं, तुमसा कहीं नहीं"
हे प्रभु यीशु, आपके जैसा कोई नहीं है। आप अद्वितीय हैं और आपके समान कोई दूसरा नहीं।

"आप हैं पूरा यकीन"
मुझे आप पर पूरा विश्वास है। जीवन में चाहे कैसी भी परिस्थिति आए, मेरा भरोसा आप पर बना रहता है।

"यीशु मसीह हो महिमा तेरी, गाए हर आसमां, गाए ये ज़मीं"
हे यीशु मसीह, आपकी महिमा हो। आकाश और धरती की हर चीज़ आपकी स्तुति करे और आपका गुणगान करे।

"अंधेरों में तो रोशनी है"

इसका अर्थ है कि जब जीवन में कठिनाइयाँ, निराशा या अंधकार आता है, तब यीशु प्रकाश बनकर रास्ता दिखाते हैं।

"तू है मंज़िल, तो रास्ता भी है"
यीशु ही जीवन की मंज़िल हैं और वही सही रास्ता भी दिखाते हैं। जब इंसान को समझ नहीं आता कि आगे क्या करना है, तब वह प्रभु पर भरोसा कर सकता है।

"तू है जहाँ, न कुछ कमियाँ है"
जहाँ प्रभु की उपस्थिति है, वहाँ सच्ची शांति और पूर्णता है। उनका साथ जीवन की कमी को पूरा करने वाला माना गया है।

"तेरे है नाम ज़िंदगी"
मेरी ज़िंदगी प्रभु को समर्पित है। जीवन का वास्तविक अर्थ और आशा यीशु के नाम में है।

"Hallelujah"

Hallelujah का अर्थ है "प्रभु की स्तुति करो" या "परमेश्वर की जय हो।"

इसलिए गीत के अंत में बार-बार "Hallelujah" कहना प्रभु यीशु के प्रति आराधना, कृतज्ञता, विश्वास और

खुशी को व्यक्त करता है।

पूरे गीत का सार

यह गीत मूल रूप से कहता है :

“हे यीशु, आपके जैसा कोई नहीं। मेरा पूरा विश्वास आप पर है। जीवन के अंधकार में आप मेरा प्रकाश हैं, आप ही मेरी मंज़िल और मेरा मार्ग हैं। मेरा जीवन आपके नाम और आपकी महिमा को समर्पित है। इसलिए मेरा मन लगातार आपकी स्तुति करता है—Hallelujah”

Lyrics Meaning In English

Yes. This song is a Christian worship song centered on Jesus Christ. Its main theme is that Jesus is incomparable, completely trustworthy, the light in darkness, the guide on the right path, and the source of true life.

I'll explain each part in detail, including the spiritual and emotional meaning, rather than giving only a literal translation.

1. "Tumsa Koi Nahi, Tumsa Kahin Nahi"

"Tumsa koi nahi"
→ There is no one like You.

"Tumsa kahin nahi"
→ There is no one anywhere like You.

The singer is declaring that Jesus is unique and incomparable.

This isn't simply saying that Jesus is "better" than other people. In the context of Christian worship, it expresses the belief that no one else can occupy the same place in the believer's relationship with God.

It is a statement of admiration, devotion, and faith:

> "Jesus, there is no one who compares with You."

The repetition makes the statement stronger. It sounds almost like a confession of faith that the singer wants to keep repeating.

---

2. "Aap Hai Poora Yakeen"

Meaning:
→ You are my complete assurance.
→ You are the one I can completely trust.

"Yakeen" means faith, certainty, confidence, or complete trust.

So this line goes deeper than simply saying "I believe in You."

The singer is saying:

"When everything else feels uncertain, You are the one thing I can completely rely upon."

It can represent the feeling of having something stable to hold onto when life is unpredictable.

For a believer, Jesus becomes the foundation of confidence.

3. “Yeshu Masih, Ho Mahima Teri”

Meaning:
→ Jesus Christ, all glory belongs to You.

“Mahima” means glory, greatness, honor, magnificence, or divine splendor.

The singer isn't praising themselves or their own achievements. Instead, they are directing all honor toward Jesus.

The spiritual idea is:

“Whatever is good, whatever gives me hope, whatever sustains me—I recognize Your greatness and give You the glory.”

This is a very common theme in Christian worship: glory belongs to God rather than the individual worshipper.

---

4. “Gaaye Har Aasmaan, Gaaye Yeh Zameen”

Meaning:
→ Let every heaven sing; let the earth sing.

Or more naturally:

> “Let the heavens and the earth sing Your praises.”

This is poetic imagery.

The singer imagines all of creation participating in worship.

Heaven

Represents the spiritual/heavenly realm.

Earth

Represents humanity and the physical world.

Together, the imagery suggests:

“Your glory is so great that all creation should praise You.”

It's not merely one person singing. The song expands the worship from an individual experience to something universal and cosmic.

5. “Andheron Mein Tu Roshni Hai”

Meaning:
→ In darkness, You are the light.

This is one of the most important metaphors in the song.

Here, darkness doesn't necessarily mean physical darkness.

It can represent:

- fear
- confusion
- sadness
- hopelessness
- difficult circumstances
- uncertainty
- loneliness
- spiritual struggle

And light represents:

- hope
- guidance
- truth
- peace
- faith
- clarity
- God's presence

So the meaning is:

> “When life becomes dark and I don't know what to do, Your presence gives me hope and shows me the way forward.”

This is a deeply personal statement of dependence on God.

6. “Tu Hai Manzil, Tu Hai Rasta Bhi Hai”

Meaning:
→ You are the destination, and You are also the way.

This is a particularly beautiful line.

Normally, when someone wants to reach a destination, they need a path to get there.

The lyric says Jesus is both.

“Tu hai manzil”

→ You are my destination.

The ultimate goal of the believer's spiritual journey is centered on God.

“Tu hai rasta bhi”

→ You are also my path.

The believer doesn't merely want to reach God someday. They want Jesus to guide how they live right now.

So the deeper meaning becomes:

> “Jesus, You are not only where I am going; You are also the one who guides me on the journey.”

This makes the line about both purpose and guidance.

---

7. “Tu Hai Jahaan, Na Kuch Kami Hai”

Meaning:
→ You are my world; with You, nothing is lacking.

This expresses contentment in God's presence.

The singer is saying that when Jesus is at the center of their life, they don't feel spiritually empty.

“Nothing is lacking” doesn't necessarily mean:

“I will have everything I want materially.”

Rather, it means:

“I have what my soul truly needs because I have You.”

It's an expression of spiritual satisfaction.

8. “Tere Hai Naam Zindagi”

Meaning:
→ Life is in Your name.

Or more naturally:

> “My life belongs to Your name.”

This line can be understood in two connected ways.

First: Jesus is the source of life

The singer recognizes Jesus as the source of true spiritual life.

Second: The singer dedicates their life to Jesus

It can also imply:

“My life is connected to You. I want my life to represent and honor Your name.”

So this isn't simply about believing in Jesus; it is about placing one's identity and life under His guidance.

9. “Hallelujah”

Hallelujah is traditionally understood as an expression meaning:

> “Praise the Lord.”

The repeated Hallelujah changes the feeling of the song from personal reflection into direct worship.

After saying:

- You are incomparable.
- You are my assurance.
- You are my light.
- You are my way.
- You are my destination.
- You are my life.

...the natural response is:

“Hallelujah.”

It expresses:

- praise
- gratitude
- joy
- surrender
- worship
- faith

The repetition also gives the song a congregational quality, as though everyone can join in together.

The deeper story behind the lyrics

The song can be understood as a spiritual journey.

It starts with recognition:

> “There is no one like You.”

Then comes trust:

> “You are my complete assurance.”

Then worship:

> “All glory belongs to You.”

Then the song describes what Jesus means to the believer during life's difficulties:

> “In darkness, You are my light.”

Then comes direction:

> “You are my destination and my path.”

Then contentment:

> “With You, nothing is lacking.”

And finally, the response is:

> “Hallelujah.”

So the song moves from faith → trust → guidance → surrender → worship.

The emotional meaning

At an emotional level, the song sounds like someone saying:

“I may not understand everything happening in my life, but I know whom I trust.”

That's important because the song doesn't promise that there will never be darkness.

Instead, it says that even when darkness comes, Jesus is the light.

It doesn't say there will never be a difficult road.

It says:

“Jesus is the road and the guide.”

It doesn't say that the believer will possess everything in the world.

It says:

“With Jesus, I have what truly matters.”

That is why the lyrics feel comforting rather than merely celebratory.

Full meaning in simple English

If we express the entire song as one continuous message, it would be:

> “Jesus, there is absolutely no one like You. There is no one anywhere who can compare with You. You are the one I completely trust and the foundation of my faith. Jesus Christ, all glory belongs to You. May the heavens and the earth sing Your praises.
> When I am surrounded by darkness, You are my light. When I don't know where to go, You are my destination and You are also the path that leads me forward. You are at the center of my world, and because I have You, I am not spiritually empty. My life belongs to You and is found in Your name.

Therefore, I praise You—Hallelujah. You are my hope, my certainty, my direction, my purpose, and my life."

❤ In one sentence

The heart of the song is:

"Jesus, I may face darkness and uncertainty, but I don't have to be afraid because You are my light, my way, my destination, and the one I can completely trust."
